Title Index, Volume 45, 1970

Accountability and the Emerging Leadership Role of State Education Agencies – Harry L. Phillips (December), pp. 377-380
Another Aspect of Curriculum Relevancy – John W. Duncan (April), pp. 177-179
Behavorial Objectives: A Needed Perspective – Lucille B. Strain (April), pp. 182-184
Behavorial Objectives . . . Something for Student and Teacher – Norman Dessler (April), pp. 174-176
The Birth of a Regional Occupational Program for Two Small High Schools – Charles E. Wallace (November), pp. 326-328
The Continuing Trend Toward Middle School Organizational Patterns – John J. Hunt, Lyle L. Berg, Donald Doyle (April), pp. 170-173
The Control-Identities of Negro and White Students in a California City – G. Louis Heath (May), pp. 209-213
The Culturally Disadvantaged–Slow Learners or Different Learners? – Kenneth R. Johnson (January), pp. 43-47
Decentralization Problems and Prospects – Allan C. Ornstein (May), pp. 219-222
De-Escalate Grades – Paul Cummins (April), pp. 188-191
The Department Chairman: A Model Job Description – Robert L. Buser, Donald C. Manlove (January), pp. 9-12
The Department Head Revisited – Robert L. Buser, William L. Humm (October), pp. 281-284
The Depth of the Matter – Grant W. Jensen (October), pp. 275-280
Developing an Effective Managerial Style – Jerry J. Bellon (May), pp. 214-218
Developing Climates for Learning – Robert L. Wendel (November), pp. 329-334
The Early Warning System and the Zero Failure School: Professional Response to Accountability – Robert E. Weber (December), pp. 369-376
Educational Goals and Program Planning Budgeting System (PPBS) – James A. Livingston (November), pp. 305-312
The Educational Park: A Second Look – Alfred P. Fernandez (May), pp. 223-229
Effective and Ineffective Actions of the High School Principal – Monroe Pederson (October), pp. 260-264
An Effective Instructional Aide Program: Training for Both Teachers and Aides – Donald C. and Sally N. Clark (October), pp. 250-255
Evaluating New Strategies in Teaching and Learning – William Georgiades (November), pp. 320-325
Film-Making in the Classroom – Marvin L. Silverman (March), pp. 106-112
Film Study: An Educational Goal for All Schools – George M. Torrey, Richard P. Finn (April), pp. 180-181
Four Key Ideas to Strengthen Public Education – Leon M. Lessinger (April), pp. 147-151
A Further Look at Manifest Anxiety of Urban Junior High School Students – Benjamin F. Smith (February), pp. 66-81
Gross and Harriott–Halpin and Croft: Two Research Teams on the Same Course? – J. Foster Watkins (January), pp. 27-30
Help Your Student Council Justify Its Existence – Thomas C. McGuire (April), pp. 152-154
High School Size As a Factor in College Academic Success – Valjean M. Cashen (October), pp. 256-259
How Efficient Is Your Central Office Staff? – Howard G. Getz, James E. Hertling (May), pp. 202-204
Individualized Learning in Home Economics – Aina E. Summerfelt (April), pp. 185-187
Industrial Arts for Educable Mentally Retarded Students – James W. Raybourn (January), pp. 24-26
The Instructional Objectives Exchange: Assistance in Goal-Referenced Evaluation – Eva L. Baker (April), pp. 158-162
Interscholastic Athletics–Tail That Wags the Dog? – James R. Solberg (May), pp. 238-239
Legal Aspects of Confrontation – Thomas A. Shannon (May), pp. 195-201
Media Support System for the Secondary School – Frederick R. Hartz, Herman Elstein (January), pp. 31-39

XUM

A Mini Course Curriculum for Inner City High Schools – Frank P. Bazeli (January), pp. 13-15
A Model for Professionalism – What Is a Profession? – James F. Garvey (March), pp. 130-134
Modular Scheduling? Yes, But... – Charles L. Wood (January), pp. 40-42
Occupational Information in the Junior High School Curriculum – Richard R. DeBlassie (October), pp. 269-274
On High School Violence: The Teacher-Student Role – Allan C. Ornstein (March), pp. 99-105
On Making Incorrigible Youths Corrigible – Harold K. Parker (February), pp. 57-60
Organization + Educational Strategy = Unrest – Joseph E. Doohan (April), pp. 155-157
Planning for Accountability Via Management by Objectives – John D. Kennedy (December), pp. 348-354
The Powerful Notion of Accountability in Education – Leon M. Lessinger (December), pp. 339-347
PPBS in a Small High School – It Can Be Done – Vernon Carter (November), pp. 313-319
The Principal's Management Role in Collective Negotiations, Grievances and Strikes – Thomas A. Shannon (February), pp. 51-56
Principals' Orientation Toward Teacher Participation in School Decision-Making – Richard A. Gorton (March), pp. 124-129
Pupil Control Ideology and Professional Orientation of School Faculty – Donald J. Willower, Charles A. Landis, III (March), pp. 118-123
Renewal for School Administrators – A Systematic Approach – R. V. Jones, J. J. Bellon (January), pp. 3-8
School Size As a Factor of School Expenditure – Neal E. Rosenberg (March), pp. 135-142
A Secondary School District Looks at Its Dress Code – Donald L. Pucker (November), pp. 293-298
Social Studies and the New Adolescent Culture – James Mackey (April), pp. 167-169
Some Practical Guidelines for Effectively Teaching Low Achieving Students at the Secondary Level – Joseph E. Doohan (November), pp. 335-336
Steps Toward Relevance: An Interest-Centered Curriculum – Herman Ohme (November), pp. 299-304
Student Community Halls A New Relevance for High Schools – Ronald B. Jackson (April), pp. 163-166
Student Dress Codes – Repressive Regulations of Questionable Legality – Alton Harrison, Eldon G. Scriven (November), pp. 291-292
A Summary of a Survey on Student Involvement in Curriculum – Stanley L. Combs (October), pp. 243-249
Teachers' Low Expectation Levels of Their Culturally Different Students: A View From Administration – Naftaly S. Glasman (February), pp. 82-94
Test Scoring Based on the Instructional Objective as the Basic Criterion Unit – Thomas J. Quirk (February), pp. 61-65
Tool for Building Accountability: The Performance Contract – Marilyn N. Grayboff (December), pp. 355-368
Using Group Work in Developing Functional Concepts in an Individualized Instructional Setting – Sidney J. Drumheller (May), pp. 230-237
Varieties of Mental Health Consultation for School Personnel – Irving H. Berkovitz (March), pp. 113-117
What's Happening? – Floyd R. Honn (January), p. 48
What's Happening? – Floyd R. Honn, Claude M. Ury (February), pp. 95-96
What's Happening? – Floyd R. Honn (March), pp. 143-144
What's Happening? – Floyd R. Honn (April), p. 192
What's Happening? – Eugene Olson (May), p. 240
What's Happening? – Floyd R. Honn (October), pp. 285-287
Why Not Consider Developing the English Department (Stressing Program Parodoxes Pushing to Possibilities)? – Barbara Beal (October), pp. 265-268
Work Experience Education – An Answer to the Question, "Who Am I?" – Grady Kimbrell, Marilyn Pilgeram (May), pp. 205-208
Youth Guidance Systems – H. B. McDaniel, Stanley L. Bowers (January), pp. 16-23

XUM

Author Index, Volume 45, 1970

Baker, Eva L. – The Instructional Objectives Exchange: Assistance in Goal-Referenced Evaluation (April), pp. 158-162

Bazell, Frank P. – A Mini Course Curriculum for Inner City High Schools (January), pp. 13-15

Beal, Barbara – Why Not Consider Developing the English Department? (October), pp. 265-268

Bellon, Jerry J. – Developing an Effective Managerial Style (May), pp. 214-218

Bellon, J. J.; and Jones, R. V. – Renewal for School Administrators – A Systematic Approach (January), pp. 3-8

Berg, Lyle L.; Doyle, Donald; and Hunt, John J. – The Continuing Trend Toward Middle School Organizational Patterns (April), pp. 170-173

Berkovitz, Irving H.–Varieties of Mental Health Consultation for School Personnel (March), pp. 113-117

Bowers, Stanley L.; and McDaniel, H. B.–Youth Guidance Systems (January), pp. 16-23

Buser, Robert L.; and Humm, William L. – The Department Head Revisited (October), pp. 281-284

Buser, Robert L.; and Manlove, Donald C. – The Department Chairman: A Model Job Description (January), pp. 9-12

Carter, Vernon–PPBS in a Small High School – It Can Be Done (November), pp. 313-319

Cashen, Valjean M. – High School Size as a Factor in College Academic Success (October), pp. 256-259

Clark, Donald C. and Sally N. – An Effective Instructional Aide Program: Training for Both Teachers and Aides (October), pp. 250-255

Combs, Stanley L. – A Summary of a Survey on Student Involvement in Curriculum (October), pp. 243-249.

Cummins, Paul – De-Escalate Grades (April), pp. 188-191

DeBlassie, Richard R. – Occupational Information in the Junior High School Curriculum (October), pp. 269-274

Dessler, Norman–Behavioral Objectives...Something for Student and Teacher (April), pp. 174-176

Doohan, Joseph E. – Organization + Educational Strategy = Unrest (April), pp. 155-157

Doohan, Joseph E. – Some Practical Guidelines for Effectively Teaching Low Achieving Students at the Secondary Level (November), pp. 335-336

Doyle, Donald; Hunt, John J.; and Berg, Lyle L. –The Continuing Trend Toward Middle School Organizational Patterns (April), pp. 170-173

Drumheller, Sidney J. – Using Group Work in Developing Functional Concepts In an Individualized Instructional Setting (May), pp. 230-237

Duncan, John W. – Another Aspect of Curriculum Relevancy (April), pp. 177-179

Elstein, Herman; and Hartz, Frederic R. – Media Support System for the Secondary School (January), pp. 31-39

Fernandez, Alfred P. – The Educational Park: A Second Look (May), pp.. 223-229

Finn, Richard P.; and Torrey, George N. – Film Study: An Educational Goal for All Schools (April), pp. 180-181

Garvey, James F. – A Model for Professionalism – What Is a Profession? (March), pp. 130-134

Georgiades, William – Evaluating New Strategies in Teaching and Learning (November), pp. 320-325

Getz, Howard G.; and Hertling, James E. – How Efficient Is Your Central Office Staff? (May), pp. 202-204

Glasman, Naftaly S. – Teachers' Low Expectation Levels of Their Culturally Different Students: A View From Administration (February), pp. 82-94

Gorton, Richard A. – Principals' Orientation Toward Teacher Participation in School Decision-Making (March), pp. 124-129

Grayboff, Marilyn N. – Tool for Building Accountability: The Performance Contract (December), pp. 355-368

Harrison, Alton; and Scriven, Eldon G. – Student Dress Codes – Repressive Regulations of Questionable Legality (November), pp. 291-292

XUM

Hartz, Frederic R.; and Elstein, Herman – Media Support System for the Secondary School (January), pp. 31-39

Heath, G. Louis – The Control-Identities of Negro and White Students in a California City (May), pp. 209-213

Hertling, James E.; and Getz, Howard G. – How Efficient Is Your Central Office Staff? (May), pp. 202-204

Honn, Floyd R. – What's Happening? (January), p. 48; (February), pp. 95-96; (March), pp. 143-144; (April), p. 192; (October), pp. 285-287

Humm, William L.; and Buser, Robert L. – The Department Head Revisited (October), pp. 281-284

Hunt, John J.; Berg, Lyle L.; and Doyle, Donald – The Continuing Trend Toward Middle School Organizational Patterns (April), pp. 170-173

Jackson, Ronald B. – Student Community Halls A New Relevance for High Schools (April), pp. 163-166

Jensen, Grant W. – The Depth of the Matter (October), pp. 275-280

Johnson, Kenneth R. – The Culturally Disadvantaged – Slow Learners or Different Learners? (January), pp. 43-47

Jones, R. V.; and Bellon, J. J. – Renewal for School Administrators – A Systematic Approach (January), pp. 3-8

Kennedy, John D. – Planning for Accountability via Management by Objectives (December), pp. 348-354

Kimbrell, Grady; and Pilgeram, Marilyn – Work Experience Education – An Answer to the Question, "Who Am I?" (May), pp. 205-208

Landis, Charles A., III; and Willower, Donald J. – Pupil Control Ideology and Professional Orientation of School Faculty (March), pp. 118-123

Lessinger, Leon M. – Four Key Ideas to Strengthen Public Education (April), pp. 147-151

Lessinger, Leon M. – The Powerful Notion of Accountability in Education (December), pp. 339-347

Livingston, James A. – Educational Goals and Program Planning Budgeting System (PPBS) (November), pp. 305-312

Mackey, James – Social Studies and the New Adolescent Culture (April), pp. 167-169

Manlove, Donald C.; and Buser, Robert L. – The Department Chairman: A Model Job Description (January), pp. 9-12

McDaniel, H. B.; and Bowers, Stanley L. – Youth Guidance Systems (January), pp. 16-23

McGuire, Thomas C. – Help Your Student Council Justify Its Existence (April), pp. 152-154

Ohme, Herman – Steps Toward Relevance: An Interest-Centered Curriculum (November), pp. 299-304

Olson, Eugene – What's Happening? (May), p. 240

Ornstein, Allan C. – On High School Violence: The Teacher-Student Role (March), pp. 99-105

Ornstein, Allan C. – Decentralization Problems and Prospects (May), pp. 219-222

Parker, Harold K. – On Making Incorrigible Youths Corrigible (February), pp. 57-60

Pederson, Monroe – Effective and Ineffective Actions of the High School Principal (October), pp. 260-264

Phillips, Harry L. – Accountability and the Emerging Leadership Role of State Education Agencies (December), pp. 377-380

Pilgeram, Marilyn; and Kimbrell, Grady – Work Experience Education – An Answer to the Question, "Who Am I?" (May), pp. 205-208

Pucker, Donald L. – A Secondary School District Looks At Its Dress Code (November), pp. 293-298

Quirk, Thomas J. – Test Scoring Based on the Instructional Objective as the Basic Criterion Unit (February), pp. 61-65

Raybourn, James W. – Industrial Arts for Educable Mentally Retarded Students (January), pp. 24-26

Rosenberg, Neal E. – School Size As a Factor of School Expenditure (March), pp. 135-142

Scriven, Eldon G.; and Harrison, Alton – Student Dress Codes – Repressive Regulations of Questionable Legality (November), pp. 291-292

Shannon, Thomas A. – The Principal's Management Role in Collective Negotiations, Grievances and Strikes (February), pp. 51-56

XUM

Shannon, Thomas A. — Legal Aspects of Confrontation (May), pp. 195-201
Silverman, Marvin L. — Film-Making in the Classroom (March), pp. 106-112
Smith, Benjamin F. — A Further Look at Manifest Anxiety of Urban Junior High School Students (February), pp. 66-81
Solberg, James R. — Interscholastic Athletics—Tail That Wags the Dog? (May), pp. 238-239
Strain, Lucille B. — Behavioral Objectives: A Needed Perspective (April), pp. 182-184
Summerfelt, Aina E. — Individualized Learning in Home Economics (April), pp. 185-187
Torrey, George N.; and Finn, Richard P. — Film Study: An Educational Goal for All Schools (April), pp. 180-181
Ury, Claude M. — What's Happening? (February), pp. 95-96
Wallace, Charles E. — The Birth of a Regional Occupational Program for Two Small High Schools (November), pp. 326-328
Watkins, J. Foster — Gross and Herriott—Halpin and Croft: Two Research Teams on the Same Course? (January), pp. 27-30
Weber, Robert E. — The Early Warning System and the Zero Failure School: Professional Response to Accountability (December), pp. 369-376
Wendel, Robert L. — Developing Climates for Learning (November), pp. 329-334
Willower, Donald J.; and Landis, Charles A., III — Pupil Control Ideology and Professional Orientation of School Faculty (March), pp. 118-123
Wood, Charles L. — Modular Scheduling? Yes, But . . . (January), pp. 40-42

XUM